THE WOMEN'S LEAGUE.
The Women's League, the first club organized among colored women in Kansas City, chartered 22 years ago to establish a home for girls. They bought property several years ago and for the last few years have tried to run the home on a small scale and pay for it at the same time. They feel that the time has come when broader steps must be taken which they hope to do just as soon as the debt of $300 is paid. They have a campaign on now to raise that amount.

The campaign consists of war between England and Germany. Nineteenth street is the dividing line. South of Nineteenth is Germany, under the command of Mrs. N. C. Crews, with the following members as field marshals: Mesdames Mary Mitchell, F. B. Peck, Fulcher, Crane, Thompson and Anna Lewis. North of Nineteenth street is England, under the command of Mrs. L. A. McCampbell, with the following members as captains: Mesdames Bessie Weaver, Myrtle Todd, Susie Andrews, I. F. Bradley and Boyd.

It is hoped that each captain and field marshal will make an effort to raise $25, or as much as they can by making a special effort. Won't you be a volunteer and help one side or the other, please? Peace will be declared June 1 with appropriate ceremony. The place of meeting will be stated later.

MRS. L. A. McCAMPBELL,

IN MEMORIAM.

Just one year ago the 8th of May You left us, dear Harry, and went away. But returned in spirit the 18th of May And carried our darling Hazel the self-same way. You left two vacant chairs that can ne'er be filled. It is hard to bear, but we know it was God's will. So onward, sorrowing through life's sad journey we'll roam Until the dear Saviour bids us a joyous meeting In our eternal home. Loving wife and mother, MRS. ALBA B. BEAN. Affectionate daughter and sister, ALBERTA BEAN.

IN MEMORIAM.

This glorious Mothers' day has come and passed away And left me here to sigh. I sometimes wonder why When God has done His will and taken away Whose place can ne'er be filled.

She lived a Christian life and with her will and might The battle she would fight through darkness into light. I ne'er forgot the day when mother passed away And sorrow fell on me throughout my life to be.

Her voice is hushed in death, no more I hear her say. My child, be still, and have the will to climb up Zion's hill.

But mother is at rest, for God knew the best. She sleeps on Jesus' breast forever to be blest.
